

SECURITY GUIDELINES

- Do not assume the exhibit hall is secure. Each exhibitor must take responsibility for the security of all the items in his or her booth. Hargrove, Show Management, facility personnel and the security contractor try to guard against theft and damage, but the ultimate burden falls on the exhibitor.
- Do not list the contents of crates and cartons on your shipping labels. A label that reads "27" color monitor" is an open invitation for thieves.
- Do not leave your booth unattended during the hectic and heavily populated move-in and move-out times.
- Consider covering your exhibit with some sort of cloth at the close of each day. The psychological deterrent makes it more difficult for people to handle merchandise. Criminals often look for the easy mark first.
- Business tools such as laptop computers, recorders, calculators, and give-away items are the things most often stolen. They should be guarded and stored safely at night.
- Thieves will also take personal items such as purses, suit coats, and toolboxes. Do not leave personal items unprotected in your booth.
- Never store items in containers marked "Empty."
- Show management may provide security to prevent entry to the exhibit area by anyone not authorized. This security service does not guarantee exhibitors against loss. Nor does it imply an assumption of liability for an exhibitor's property by Hargrove, Show Management, or their agents.
- Your exhibit materials should be insured from the time they leave your facility until the time they return. Consult with your insurance agency about adding a rider to your existing policy.
